By: USAToday Bestselling Author Serenity King

The Roaring Twenties! The decade of the Harlem Renaissance, the prohibition of alcohol, and economic boom. The age of remarkable social and political change for Americans. African-American's lived in cities and not on farms.

New York City, Harlem was at the center of it all. This, began a cultural movement. The money was right and the parties were tight. High fashion was a way of life, not Sunday morning best.

The period from 1920-29 changed the face of America as well as American's. Let's have fun and bring those times back. Meet me and other authors and readers for a delightful Renaissance retreat. Three days and two nights of undeniable adventures, as we ride the waves of the twenties. See you there!
